

Military & Family Life Counseling Program

The Benefits of Serving Those Who Serve Our Country

MFLC Provider Testimonials

"It was an honor and privilege to encourage these young people to work to improve the quality and effectiveness of their family relationships. Our military moms, dads, spouses, significant others, and children are truly American Heroes!"

"It has been an honor to be part of this team..."

"I did some of the best work I'd ever done with clients, and for a change (because often we are NOT recognized for what we do), I was recognized many times by the brigade in which I was embedded..."

Benefits of Completing Preliminary Requirements

Before you even begin your first assignment as an On Demand MFLC provider, you can take advantage of several benefits just for completing the preliminary requirements of submitting all required credentialing information and successfully passing all training modules mandated by the Department of Defense.

MFLC Benefits

- Earn CEUs and PDHs for completing required trainings
- Earn Certificate of Training and Credentialing Achievement to demonstrate your involvement with this admirable program
- Automatically considered for participation in other Magellan networks
- Opportunity to provide real help to military service members and their families

Next Steps

If you haven't applied already, go to: www.MagellanHealth.com

Click on Join Our Team, then click Magellan Careers. After applying for a Magellan On-Demand or Surge assignment, Magellan will contact you shortly for follow-up and next steps.

You may call 1-800-424-6040 with any questions as well. For more information, visit us online at www.MagellanMFLC.org or email us at MFLC@MagellanHealth.com.